

NONPROFIT PUBLIC POLICY FORUM

Feb 2, 2012 • 8:30 am-2:30 pm • The Riverside Hotel, Boise

▶ The Nonprofit Public Policy Forum is a gathering of the members of the Idaho Nonprofit Center to explore public policy issues, recognize the policy interests we have in common, and build our collective capacity to impact Idaho’s future.

Public Policy Conversations

Health Insurance Exchange – what’s going on, how it will impact our employees and constituents?

- Corey Surber, St. Alphonsus Regional Medical Center
- Christine Neuhoff, St. Luke’s Foundation
- Scott Kreiling, Regence BlueShield
- Lee Flinn, AARP

State Energy Plan - how will this impact the people and future of our communities, what do we need to know?

- Courtney Washburn, Idaho Conservation League
- Lee Flinn, AARP
- Lisa Young, Idaho Energy Collaborative
- Mary Chant, Community Action Partnership of Idaho

Special Report: Economic Impact of Idaho Nonprofits

A study of the economic impact of Idaho’s nonprofit sector was commissioned by the Idaho Nonprofit Center and conducted by University of Idaho economist, Steven Peterson. He will report his findings and we will discuss what it means to be a significant economic driver in our state.

All public policy conversations will be held in a fishbowl style setting

What is going on with the Health Insurance Exchange? How will it impact our staff and constituents?

Energy policies are so complex. How will the new state energy plan impact our nonprofit and those we serve?
